Dear Friend,

Where can you find the only senior nutrition program outside of New York City that serves kosher meals five days a week? At the Sam Pomeranz Jewish Community Center, of course!

Seniors love our Bobbi Epstein Lewis Senior Adult Dining Program. Just read the glowing accolades (see enclosed sheet) from some of our regular diners. Delicious kosher meals, great atmosphere, camaraderie and more make the JCC the place to be weekdays for lunch, (and dinner on Mondays during the summer).

Seniors love our Bobbi Epstein Lewis Senior Adult Dining Program.

Each year we prepare and serve more than 7,000 hot, tasty and nutritious kosher meals to seniors age 60 and older. Socialization and independence are fostered through weekly Shabbat luncheons, guest speakers and regularly sponsored entertainment such as live music, movies and trivia.

As an Onondaga County program, we are required to keep our meals affordable. The county sets the very low suggested senior contribution amount per meal. No one is ever turned away because they cannot pay. Although Onondaga County, New York State and the Jewish Federation of Central New York partially fund the program, revenues do not cover costs and the program runs a large deficit each year. Despite this being an ongoing challenge to our bottom line, we choose to continue running the program in the tradition of L'Dor V'Dor, generation to generation. It's our way of taking care of a generation that took care of us and is so important to the character of our community.

Please help us continue this incredibly worthy program which benefits so many local Jewish and non-Jewish seniors. Your support will help ensure that we continue serving local seniors from "generation to generation." Please make a tax-deductible donation to the JCC's Senior Adult Dining Program today.

Sincerely,

Cindy Stein

P.S. For your convenience, please use the enclosed form to make a tax-deductible donation today to the JCC's Senior Adult Dining Program. Also, please remember to check out the testimonials from some of our seniors on the enclosed sheet.

The JCC's Senior Adult Dining Program is funded in part by the Onondaga County Department of Aging and Youth, the New York State Office for the Aging and Administration for Community Living, and the Jewish Federation of Central New York.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Sam Pomeranz Jewish Community Center (JCC) of Syracuse is the nucleus of the Jewish community built on the foundation of Jewish ethics and values. We provide quality services and programs for all ages, serving everyone in the Central New York Region.

TELL US ABOUT THE JCC'S SENIOR ADULT DINING PROGRAM.

I love the meal program. The food is tasty and healthy, it's served in a very clean manner and even though I've been coming here only for a year, it already feels like home. I came here with my friend, Mr. Bill, but I have met so many new wonderful people. I also think the entertainment on Fridays is excellent—the music, the dance, the singing—it is all so special. Great food and great entertainment in the company of great friends.

The chef is wonderful, the food is delicious, and the people who come to dine are very friendly. I enjoy coming here. I give five stars to the JCC.

— Michele Stirt

We come here whenever we can but not as often as we'd like to. I still work part-time and we live on the West Side which is far. But we enjoy the food and the company so much that we still try and come at least twice a week.

The JCC Meal Program is the best thing since sliced bread. My wife and I have been coming here for about six months now and we have made so many new friends. And our friendships have gone beyond just the lunch. We go out for movies, plays, concerts, and operas. It is a great opportunity to meet new people and even to meet some old people—friends and acquaintances we hadn't seen in over ten years and here they were on the next table. Moreover the people who run the program are excellent, very kind and very invested in what they do. The food is great. I especially love the salmon and the quiche. The quiche is absolutely to die for.

— Joseph Bova

I've been coming to the JCC lunch for many years now, I don't even remember the exact number of years. I think the best part of it is the camaraderie. I love the food and my favorite day is Friday, when they have live music.
